September 27 - Departures

Directions:

For those driving up from Orlando, you will take the Florida Turnpike (there are a couple tolls) west until it connects with Interstate 75, heading north. Beginning at Orlando, if you head toward Ocala you are heading in the right direction (John Travolta lives in Ocala). Gainesville is about 45 miles north of Ocala. From this direction, the best exit is the 1st (of 4) Gainesville exits at Williston Road. Just follow Williston Road east until it intersects with Rt. 441. Go left on 441 and you'll pass on left the Paramount Hotel and Conference Center (where some faculty are staying). Rt. 441 becomes 13th Street SW when you get into Gainesville city limits. At SW 8th Avenue and Museum Rd (which is the street to the left), you are now on campus and take a left off of 13th St (441) and go to first traffic light (there will be a parking deck on right). Turn right onto Newell Road (now you're heading right into campus) and go to the first street on the right, Inner Drive. Take a right and about 75 meters down on left you'll begin to pass by the Architecture Building (which is where our Gallery is located). Park in any open spot (after 4:00 PM there are no longer restrictions). Walk up the concrete wide path in the middle of the building, and at the top, take a left and there you'll find the Gallery. We'll likely have some signs to point your way. You made it!!!

If you happen to be traveling South from Atlanta, take the Newberry Road exit, go left (east) on Newberry Road past the Oaks shopping mall, and stay on Newberry until it becomes University that involves climbing a large hill (we do have hills in this part of Florida). The only tricky part of this route is that at approximately 37th Street Newberry divides. Take the left branch, which then at 34th Street becomes University. Take University up past some neighborhoods, the football stadium, dorms, campus buildings, etc. until you get to 13th Street (at the corner of the campus). Take a right and go down to Museum Rd. (same place those coming from south arrived) and take a right and then follow the same instructions to get to the Architecture Bldg.
